Insurance

Fully comprehensive insurance is provided by Lazy Days to the driver(s) named on the Insurance Motor Rental Agreement. A maximum of 2 additional drivers can be added to the insurance.

Lazy Days campervans may only be driven by the Hirer and/or agreed additional Drivers who have been accepted by Lazy Days and their Insurance Company. All named Drivers must be over 21 and under 75 years of age and have held a full licence for at least two years. The rental prices quoted on our website and literature include insurance cover for one UL or Irish named driver aged between 25 -75 years, with a clean licence. Any additional surcharges due to, for example: licence from outside UK/Ireland, driver's age, high-risk occupation, history of endorsements within the last five years, history of accidents, physical/mental defects, refused motor insurance record and motor convictions, additional drivers, etc. will be advised by Lazy Days and any additional costs will be payable as part of the final balance.

All drivers must produce their full drivers licence AND confirmation of address in the form of a recent utility bill or a bank/building society statement at the time of hire. Hirers from outside Ireland and the UK must provide a valid passport as proof of id. Please note that if these documents are not available, Lazy Days will be unable to proceed with the Hire as they are governed by their insurance company's requirements.

The Hirer is insured for damage to the campervan and property of a third party. In the event of any damage to the vehicle the Hirer will be responsible for the insurance excess of €1600 per case not rental. Failure to declare an accident is a criminal offence punishable by law.

It is illegal to drive without insurance in Ireland & UK. Driving by an unauthorised driver invalidates the insurance.

The theft of a campervan is not covered by insurance if the keys are left in the ignition or the surrounds of the vehicle while the vehicle is unoccupied and the hirer shall be fully responsible for the cost of a replacement vehicle.

The hirer is accountable for the following items not covered by Lazy Days insurance:

- Windscreen & tyre damage.
- Loss/damage/theft to the radio, stereo equipment, and aerials.
- Personal effects within or from the vehicle.

Security Deposit

Lazy Days requires a security deposit of €600 for each rental payable in cash or by Credit Card. The security deposit will be refunded in full within seven days of return of the vehicle on the following conditions:

- No damage to camper, including windscreen or tyres, or any third party.
- No malfunction, breakdown or repairs caused by the negligence of the hirer. The hirer is required to check the water and oil levels in the engine and tyre pressures.
- Camper is returned to the agreed location, on the agreed date and time.
- Camper and contents are returned in the same condition as it was collected, the interior cleaned including all cooking utensils and camping equipment.
- Camper is refuelled.
- No additional costs have been incurred during the period of rental, e.g.: violation of traffic laws or regulations.

The hirer agrees to pay Lazy Days any additional costs over and above the security deposit value should damages exceed the security deposit value.

A cleaning fee of €50.00 will be charged against the deposit if the vehicle is not returned with the interior and exterior in a clean condition.

Lazy Days reserves the right to increase the security deposit for specific events eg: festivals or rallies.

Violation of Traffic Laws and Regulations

Driver(s) are personally liable for all legal penalties and fees pertaining to any traffic violation infringements under the current Road Traffic Legislation applicable in the Republic of Ireland or Northern Ireland. Lazy Days will hold your credit card details for 30 days after the rental agreement finishes in case any traffic violation infringements are presented to Lazy Days for your hire period. The driver(s) will still be liable for any penalties and fees received after this period.

Lazy Days will notify the driver(s) of any speeding or parking fines and an administration charge of €25 for each infringement incurred throughout the hire period.

A replacement camper van may be offered subject to availability. Lazy Days cannot accept liability for any costs arising from accident, breakdown or any other cause, e.g., replacement vehicle costs, travel, accommodation. Lazy Days liability extends to either replacing your van with a similar one or refunding your hire charge for any days you lose the total use of the vehicle.

Lazy Days aim to be as flexible as possible with our collection and return times. Our normal office hours are 9 AM to 6 PM.

If you are unable to collect the campervan within these hours, please contact us and we will try to make ourselves available. We cannot guarantee that we will be available outside office hours, and if we are not the campervan will be available for collection the following day, or whenever is arranged otherwise between you and Lazy Days.

be deemed as the Hirer's responsibility.

The Hirer is responsible for returning the campervan with a full tank of fuel and ensuring that it is as clean as at the point of Hire.
